

HER HEART STIRRED

CHARINA EXPRESSES SYMPATHY FOR THE ARMENIANS.

At All Events, She Says Pretty Words of Pity for the Poor Wretches, Whether They Mean Anything More Than Politics or Not—How a Deputation of Workmen Had Audience of Her Majesty at Balmoral Castle and How Nothing Was Given Out About It—Foreign News in General.

London, Oct. 12.—The czarina, previous to leaving Balmoral Castle for France, received a delegation of laborers, who called upon her to ask for her support for the suffering Armenians. The audience, however, was granted on the condition that nothing should be said about it until her majesty left England. The delegation, it now appears, urged the czarina to do something to stay the hand of the Sultan and her majesty replied that so far she had interfered but little in politics, although she was ready to do anything in her power to help bring about a crusade against the existing conditions at Constantinople, adding:

"A more womanly or Christian action than helping to alleviate the sufferings of the poor Armenians is hardly conceivable. I am ready to do anything in my power to help bring about a crusade against the existing conditions at Constantinople, adding:

BRITISH HEADS TOGETHER.

London, Oct. 12.—It is learned that the conference held Saturday night between the marquis of Salisbury, the secretary of state for the colonies, Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, and the British ambassador at Washington, Sir Julian Pauncefote, was most satisfactory and it is believed in the highest quarters that at least the general principle of arbitration and the settlement of the Venezuelan question will be decided upon by the United States before the end of this month. Sir Julian Pauncefote sails for New York on Wednesday with final instructions on the subject.

NOT MUCH OF A PANIC.

Paris, Oct. 12.—The president of the National Brazilian bank has received a cable message from Rio de Janeiro emanating from official sources there, stating that the general panic in Brazil, and the commercial panic announced in a dispatch to a London paper on Saturday last, which caused a fall of 4 per cent in Brazilian, was exaggerated. The message added that the Brazilian government has not changed during the last few days and says that the Brazilian government has no reason for declaring a moratorium of six months.

CASE OF THE CASTLES.

London, Oct. 12.—Mrs. Castle, who, with her husband, Walter M. Castle, the merchant of San Francisco, is held prisoner in Holloway Jail, pending their arraignment on remand at Marlborough street police court tomorrow, was examined today in prison by Dr. Savage, an eminent specialist in mental diseases. There appears to be no doubt that Mrs. Castle's mental balance is seriously disturbed.

During the interview, which James R. Roosevelt, the secretary of the United States embassy, had with her, she kept saying:

"Oh, my head; oh, my head."

She appeared quite dazed and spoke incoherently.

Evidence is on its way here from the family doctor of the Castles in the United States which will show that Mrs. Castle's mental condition has been unsatisfactory since the birth of her child in 1894, so much that he at one time suggested the placing of Mrs. Castle under partial restraint. It is expected that Mrs. Castle will plead guilty to taking the articles found in her trunk without felonious intent and it is said Mr. Castle will plead not guilty.

In case of their non-acquittal, the Castles will not stand in the jurisdiction of the Bow street magistrate but will request to be committed for trial. Then, the letters, telegrams of sympathy and endorsement of their high character and social and business standing will be offered as an urgent plea for bail. Mr. and Mrs. Castle are confined in separate rooms in Holloway Jail.

LADY SCOTT ARRAIGNED.

London, Oct. 12.—Lady Scott, the mother-in-law of Earl Russell, who was arrested on Friday on the complaint of Earl Russell, who charged her with criminal libel, was arraigned at Bow street police court today in company with John C. Cockerton, a marine engineer, and Fred Kast, a German, who are jointly accused with her.

Counsel for the earl detailed at length the unhappy married life of the prosecutor, the suit for divorce brought against him by the countess and the unsuccessful suit which the latter brought more recently against him for a restitution of conjugal rights.

In so doing counsel alluded to the most serious charges made by the countess and subsequently retracted, and touched upon the reflections cast upon Mr. H. A. Roberts, the master of Bath college, who successfully sued the countess for damages as a result.

Kast and Cockerton, it appears, were employed on Earl Russell's yacht in 1887.

A bookkeeper named Carver testified that Lady Scott brought him documents to get printed and sent to the law firms and also to a long list of people, members of the house of commons, clubs, heads of colleges and railway station masters which contained the libel complained of. Lady Scott, Carver said, also wrote him as follows:

"I want you to find me a rich American gentleman to help me through with these expenses, with a view to marriage. I have a plenty of good offers but I must get rich."

Lady Scott, Cockerton and Kast were committed for trial.

standing reports to the contrary, no actual information has been received here that the alleged filibustering tug Dauntless has succeeded in landing its cargo on Cuban shores, although it has had time to do so since it left Palm Beach last Friday night. The Dauntless, when she left here, it is believed, undoubtedly started another filibustering expedition and government officials in Jacksonville say they will make it hot for the little boat when it returns. The cruiser New York has returned off the St. John's bar, resuming her vigilance over the filibustering vessels. The revenue cutters Morrill and Rowell are in this port and the Winona is in the vicinity of Blackwater bay, but with all their vigilance the Cubans manage to send filibustering expeditions to Cuba at intervals.

FIGHTING IN CUBA.

Havana, Oct. 12.—Dispatches received here today from official sources in the province of Pinar del Rio, say that another battle has been fought between the Spaniards and the insurgents under Antonio Maceo, resulting in another victory for the former. General Reheque was in command of the government troops and Maceo led the enemy. The fighting took place at San Diego, and the insurgents are alleged to have sustained enormous loss. The dispatches also say the loss of the Spaniards was considerable, and that the fighting continues, and that no details are at present obtainable.

RELIEF WORK IN JAPAN.

Tokyo, Oct. 12.—The Northern Pacific steamer Tacoma brought the following official dispatch:

The dredging of the Yokohama harbor from the city funds the cost of repairs rendered necessary by typhoons in July and August, but the cost of repairing the damage to the harbor, estimated at 500,000 yen, is to be raised by issuing city bonds to that amount. Other cities will issue bonds for the same purpose. The emperor and empress of Japan have made a contribution amounting to 30,000 yen to relieve the sufferers of the recent floods in eight districts.

THIRD DREDGING OF THE YOKOHAMA HARBOR.

The dredging of the Yokohama harbor which has been started, will occupy four years. The area to be dredged is one square mile and it is to be deepened to from 24 to 30 feet depth at low water. There are 2,300 houses still submerged in Tokyo in addition to the flooding of the harbor. Communications with those parts is being carried on by boats. The neighborhood represents the appearance of an immense lake, the height of the water being five feet.

Among the passengers by the steamer Tokyu Maru, which arrived at Nagasaki on September 15 from Vladivostok, were the officers and crew of the Norwegian steamship Hovding, which was ashore on the Siberian coast July 14 last. The captain remains at Vladivostok pending negotiations for the sale of the wreck.

GUAYACIL'S FIRES.

New York, Oct. 12.—According to the Herald's correspondent in Guayaquil, Ecuador, fresh attempts of an incendiary nature have been made. Several alarming fires have occurred in parts of the city not touched by the great conflagration but the village of the first men prevented them from spreading. Several more arrests have been made in connection with these fires. A large meeting has just been held at which a commission was appointed to inquire into the cause of the fires and to make recommendations. Churches and schools which were left standing are filled and rough wooden sheds are being erected as fast as possible in different parts of the city. Already over 100 charred bodies have been found in the ruins and others are being discovered wherever the debris left by the fire is disturbed. It is now known that many persons were driven by the flames to the water and were drowned.

EARTHQUAKE IN SCOTLAND.

Dunbarton, Scotland, Oct. 12.—A serious subterranean disturbance very like an earthquake on a very small scale, took place here today at 10:30. The line on the Carseassan, which was lying off the quay, being broken, she was suddenly shaken and violently moved 30 feet by a concussion under her stern. The bank was heaved for a distance of one hundred feet and the shipyard was considerably damaged. The workmen on board the Carseassan were panic stricken.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY.

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. Cold and Mosquitoes are the Obstacles to Getting it Out.

San Francisco, Oct. 12.—Among the passengers on the steamer Boatway which has just arrived from Alaska, were J. E. Spurr, H. B. Goodrich and F. C. Schrader of the United States Geological Survey. They were sent by the department to Alaska last spring to make a report on the prospects of quartz mining in that region and they spent the entire summer in pursuing their investigations and observations.

They have satisfied themselves, they say, that the prospects of profitable quartz mining in Alaska are very good, and will make a report to that effect. There is a big ledge running northwest and southeast through the country similar to the mother lode in California, and they expect to see many big mines opened on the ledge before many years have passed. At present placer mining is the only process in vogue on the Yukon and its tributaries. They declare that quartz mining can only be conducted at great expense, but they believe that plenty of ore can be found of sufficient richness to make quartz mining not only paying, but a profitable venture. The chief obstacles to be encountered are mosquitoes and cold winters.

St. Louis, Oct. 12.—Philip Zimmer, aged 24, a blacksmith, in an attempt to kill his wife, shot her sweet heart, Gella Vietz, in the abdomen, and then put a bullet through his own heart at the Vietz girl's home at an early hour today. His victim, who is 29 years old, was taken to the city hospital, where it is thought she cannot live long. Zimmer's action can only be accounted for on the supposition that he was insanely jealous of the girl he shot. He had been going with her for three years and was madly in love. Before the shooting Zimmer asked Miss Vietz to marry him and leave the city, but she refused to do so.

SETTLES THE GANG

REMAINING SHERBURNE ROBBER IS CAPTURED.

Fate of the Two Criminals Exemplifies Not Only the Scriptural Hardness of the Transgressor's Lot, But Terminates an Episode of Unusual Bravery—Wounded by Pursuers From the Very Minute of Their Crime Until Death Overtakes One and Prison Doors Close Behind the Other—Crime News in General.

Lake Mills, Ia., Oct. 12.—The young man under arrest here on the charge of having been implicated in the double murder and bank robbery at Sherburne has made a confession acknowledging that he was an associate in the affair. He says that the man killed while resisting arrest near Elmore was his brother. He will not reveal his true name nor the location of his home.

The confession was secured by his captor, Marshal Ruby. He declares that his brother planned the robbery and killed the man near Elmore. The revenue cutters Morrill and Rowell are in this port and the Winona is in the vicinity of Blackwater bay, but with all their vigilance the Cubans manage to send filibustering expeditions to Cuba at intervals.

After making the confession to Marshal Ruby, the latter wanted the prisoner to tell his right name, but he shook his head and said:

"I do not wish to let my folks know anything about this. I suppose I shall plead guilty under an assumed name. The name he first gave upon being taken into custody was Jim McMullen. He now says that it is fictitious, but will give no other, so that is the name under which he will probably be arraigned. He will be taken to the Blue Earth county jail, located in Blue Earth City, for safe keeping as it is considered dangerous to lodge him in the county jail at Palmont, the county seat of Martin county, in which the Sherburne affair occurred.

Minneapolis, Oct. 12.—An Albert Lea, Minn., special to the Journal says:

The second Sherburne bank robbery, captured at Lake Mills, Iowa, by here today on his way to Blue Earth City, where he is to be jailed for safety. He would certainly be lynched in Martin county, where the crime was committed, and it is feared that even in Fairbault an attempt to lynch him may be made. He has confessed, in addition to his previous admissions, that he and the dead robber, his brother, fired a barn at Elmore Lake, Minn., a week ago today with the idea of robbing the bank during the excitement. Owing to the care the cashier took to lock up the funds the plan failed. He says they broke into a hardware store at Sherburne and stole their revolvers and bicycles.

A Mason City, Ia., special says that the dead robber known as J. D. Sair has been identified as Jesse Lake, who clerked in that city last May.

A dispatch from Sherburne, Minn., says: The body of the dead robber, J. D. Sair, was interred at Sherburne Sunday.

The only service was a short prayer by Rev. J. J. Lutz. Thousands of people came from all directions. The other funeral was that of George A. Thorburn, the dead cashier. The L. O. O. F. lodge, of which the deceased was a member, had charge of the funeral and Rev. C. W. Walker preached the funeral sermon. The body will be shipped to Ontario.

KILLED BY A FRIEND.

San Francisco, Oct. 12.—Charles Abiker, who killed Count von Ballestren at Monterey last night, is of good German family. He says he was preparing to go hunting just at dusk and had a playful struggle with his friend for the gun. The weapon was discharged and a load of bird shot entered von Ballestren's breast, killing him instantly.

The dead man came from a prominent German family. He served in the German army and came to the Pacific coast about ten years ago. He spent his money lavishly and it was soon gone. For a time he led a precarious existence, working as a housepainter and bootblack, and finally enlisted in the United States army, where he served as a private. Later, he said he had become reconciled with his family and that he was receiving money from Germany. He went to Monterey a few months ago and lived with his friend Abiker. The latter's story of the shooting is believed by the police, but there are a few discrepancies in it. He says the shooting occurred at sundown while the neighbors say they heard the shot after 8 o'clock. Von Ballestren's clothes were not powder burned, as they would have been had the shot been fired at close range.

INSTEAD OF HIS WIFE.

Washington, Oct. 12.—Gwynne R. Thompkins, a sporting writer and a turf man, who has gained some notoriety by the disappearance of his wife, a writer under the non de plume of Helen Baire, and her subsequent divorce, followed by her recent marriage to a California turfman named Norman Brough, was shot and painfully wounded in West Washington this afternoon by John Collins, a district government employee. It is said that a note from Thompkins asking Mrs. Collins to meet him today fell into the hands of her husband who met Thompkins at the appointed hour and used his revolver on him.
